

Agreement for the Staff, Governors and School

As a whole School, we pledge to:

- To work within the Christian values of the School through our Vision and the Fruit of the Spirit.
- Provide a Christian ethos with links to the Anglican Churches within the Parish of Little Venice (St. Saviour's Church and St. Mary's on Paddington Green) and the wider community.
- Provide a welcoming, appropriate, stimulating and safe environment.
- Provide a high standard of education which challenges, supports and recognises individuals.
- Uphold the schools commitment to the highest standards of Child Protection and Safeguarding.
- Ensure use of Social Media and digital images is used sensibly and within the school's guidelines.
- Demonstrate and model clear expectations of behaviour through our Code of Conduct.
- Encourage respect and nurture understanding of one another.
- Respect our pupils, their parents/carers and all other members of the school community.
- Provide opportunities for parental involvement and recognise the different skills and qualities parents bring.
- Provide clear channels of communication between school and parents regarding pupil progress and personal development.
- Value highly working in partnership with our parents and welcome their input
- Support the PTA and be active in the raising of funds in order to enrich the experiences and the education of our children.
